In 1850, pioneer Peter Britt established Valley View Vineyard, the Northwest's first winery, in the Rogue Valley—Oregon's "Mediterranean." In 1971 the Wisnovsky family moved to Oregon in search of the ideal location to grow winegrapes. They rediscovered this unique region and planted 26 acres in the beautiful Applegate Valley to Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay and Merlot. The Applegate is one of the warmest, driest and highest valleys in western Oregon. Very warm days fully ripen fruit while cool nights preserve precious grape flavors. For twenty years, Valley View has quietly produced some of the finest Cabernets and Merlots in America. All of their handcrafted wines are sold in Oregon or by mail order. Valley View is one of Oregon's most award-winning wineries, receiving 12 Gold medals in 1993 in international competitions.

Yamhill Valley Vineyards is situated on a 300-acre estate in the rolling foothills of the Pacific Coast range, 40 miles from Portland on the way to the beach. The 100-acre vineyard produces Pinot noir, Pinot gris, Chardonnay and Riesling for a limited production, family-operated winery. Yamhill Valley Vineyards is dedicated to producing high-quality wines in the emerging Oregon style reminiscent of the finest Burgundian and Alsatian wines. We believe that the rich varietal character of our wines is initiated in the vineyard and reaches full potential through timely application of attentive winemaking principles. Picnic area available. Never a tasting fee. We can ship to many states.
